

Terms of Service — Veyra

By accessing and using Veyra, users agree to comply with the following terms and conditions, established to guarantee a safe, transparent, and respectful environment within the platform.

Veyra is a digital platform designed to support the management of elderly care homes, facilitating medical information tracking, operational organization, and communication between families and staff.

The service is provided “as is”, and Veyra reserves the right to update its features, interface, or policies in order to improve performance and user experience.

Users are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide and for maintaining the confidentiality of their login credentials. Unauthorized use of another user’s account or any attempt to manipulate the system is strictly prohibited.

Veyra may temporarily suspend or limit access in cases of maintenance, detected misuse, or security concerns.

All platform content, including visual design, reports, and tools, is the intellectual property of Veyra and may not be copied or redistributed without prior authorization.

By continuing to use Veyra, users acknowledge their understanding and acceptance of these terms, contributing to a responsible and secure community for elderly care management.
